AEGINA ISLAND

AGIA MARINA

SARONIC GULF

If you have shortage of time,
but you want to escape to a nearby island
to swim in emerald waters then,
you should go to Agia Marina.
It's a village in Aegina island with a beautiful beach and picturesque taverns to enjoy the traditional flavors of the island.

AEGINA ISLAND

MONI & PERDIKA

SARONIC GULF

After almost an hour journey, our first stop is the island of Moni. A nature reserve that offers crystal blue waters for swimming and snorkeling. Hiking enthusiasts will be able to explore the wonderful island and photograph the animals that live on it, mainly peacocks, deer & kri-kri.

Then we can visit, either the main port of Aegina, or a small fishing village of Aegina called Perdika where you can take a walk and have lunch.

The choice is yours! The return journey starts before sunset and offers us a romantic atmosphere as the sun sets right behind us.

PERDIKA - AEGINA ISLAND

MONI ISLAND

AGISTRI ISLAND

SARONIC GULF

Agistri island is a small paradise on earth of the Saronic Gulf with the trees touching the sea.

In about an hour after our embark you can enjoy the magnificent landscape swimming in the blue waters enjoying the peace and tranquility it offers.
You can also enjoy unique flavors of the island in the taverns next to the sea.

POROS ISLAND

SARONIC GULF

We start from the marina and traveling south.
After 1:30 hours we arrive at the small Venice of the Saronic, the island of Poros.

The view is mesmerizing.

You can enjoy swimming on a beautiful beach,
then take walk around the town and have lunch
in one of the many restaurants tasting
the traditional cuisine of the island.

HYDRA ISLAND

SARONIC GULF

We start from the marina and travel south.

After 2 hours we reach an island that lives in the past, Hydra. The city has some of the most beautiful architecture in Greece, with mansions built in the 17th & 18th century, cobbled streets and no cars! Walk around the island and feel all its energy and history. It is no coincidence that the most famous artists of the 21st century worshiped Hydra!

You can have lunch in its beautiful tavernas and swim in its clear blue waters. On the way back we can also stop for swimming and relaxation at a beautiful beach of the neighboring island of Poros.

SPETSES ISLAND & HINITSA BAY SARONIC GULF

A cruise for travel lovers, with alternating images and landscapes. After about 3 hours we reach the island of Hinitisa in Porto Heli, where you will swim in its crystal waters and enjoy your sunbathing, snacks and wine.

Raising anchor and sailing for 15 minutes we will visit Spetses. An island from the past with buildings from the last century, where you can either walk or enjoy a tour of the island by horse and carriage.

SPETSES ISLAND

HINITSA ISLAND

CAPE SOUNIO

SARONIC GULF

After almost an hour from our departure we reach Cape Sounio, the southernmost point of Attica. In front of you is the majestic temple of Poseidon, which was dedicated by the ancient Greeks to the god of the sea. The temple was built around the same time as the Acropolis. You can swim at the cove under the temple, while enjoying your snack and wine. On our way back, we'll stop at a beautiful beach of the Athenian Riviera for swimming and relaxing & enjoy the beautiful sunset.
