

ONE-DAY CULINARY TRIPS & EXPERIENCES

ATHENS RIVIERA & CAPE SOUNIO WINE & LOCAL PRODUCE TASTING WITH LUNCH & VISIT TO CAPE SOUNIO

Don't let the southern part of our city remain undiscovered! Leave behind Athens' urban vibes and follow the locals to their favourite getaway to the beach, where summertime is celebrated all year long.

Enjoy a farm-to-table Greek experience with honey tasting

Start off your day trip from Athens at an urban farm known for its exquisite grown on-site products. Enjoy your snacks and refreshments among herb gardens and beehives. Join a honey tasting and discover why in Greece it is considered precious as gold, significant in the culture, history and well-being of our people. Meet our food experts in their local farm and try out their premium products. Learn how to recognise basic honey types and all the secrets of honey tasting.

Indulge in a Greek wine tasting & local meal at a family-run winery

Greeks claim a long history of viticulture and vinification, with wine being a symbol of high culture that, as believed, distinguished civilised people from barbarians. Right now Greece offers around 200 indigenous varieties to refresh your wine-loving palate with their unique character and diverse terroir. Celebrate Greek wine from local, indigenous varieties, grown under the Mediterranean sun. Our enthusiastic winemaker will guide you through the winery and showcase their most prominent labels accompanied with delicious homemade meze-style meal.

Marvel a one-of-a-kind view of the Temple of Poseidon in Cape Sounio

Only an hour away from the city, in this Athens day trip you can feel the energy of the Temple of Poseidon, one of the most significant ancient Greek sights, overlooking the crystal clear waters of the Aegean Sea. Enjoy the sunshine in the morning or the scenic sunset in the evening and take in the refreshing sea breeze like you are on a Greek island.

CULINARY TOUR IN AEGINA ISLAND

PISTACHIO TASTING & LUNCH

Hop on our special culinary tour on the island of Aegina! Celebrate local tastes and enjoy the charms of a Greek island, just an hour away from the city.

Pistachio Tasting

Start your tour tasting the “star product” of the island, the famous pistachio of Aegina – and the delicious treats made out of it. We will pay a visit to a family-run business by the port that produces over 30 hand-made pistachio delicatessen products found exclusively in their workshop.

Walk around Aegina

Walk around Aegina’s charming alleys and discover the hidden gems of the island. We will take a break having coffee or local spirits by the port and talk about the culture and daily life of the locals.

Enjoy local fish and seafood

Following that, a cosy and pampering dinner with fresh fish and seafood is definitely not to miss when in Aegina. For you, we selected the most authentic, family establishment by the seaside. Enjoy various tasty fish mezedes such as deep fried calamari or grilled octopus that come fresh from the local fish market accompanied with ouzo or a local wine of your choice.

Finish with a pistachio ice-cream

End your tour on a sweet note with a refreshing selection of pistachio ice cream in a variety of unique flavors, crafted from Aegina’s own premium pistachios, making for an unforgettable taste experience.

AEGINA ISLAND CULINARY & CULTURAL TOUR

Embark on a delightful full-day tour to the charming island of Aegina, located just a short ferry ride from Athens. Known for its stunning landscapes and world-famous pistachios, Aegina offers a unique blend of history, culture, and culinary experiences that will captivate your senses.

Departure from Athens:

Your journey begins with a scenic ferry ride from the bustling port of Piraeus in Athens to Aegina. Enjoy the refreshing sea breeze and the picturesque views as you approach the island.

Private Island Tour:

Embark on a private guided tour of Aegina. Your comfortable transfer will take you around the island, allowing you to soak in the scenic beauty and explore historical landmarks, such as the Temple of Aphaia and the charming traditional villages.

Visit to a Pistachio Factory:

Learn all about Aegina's renowned product at a pistachio factory. Get an insider's look at the process of cultivating and producing the island's prized pistachios, which are considered some of the best in the world.

Dairy Farm Visit & Cooking Class:

Visit a local dairy farm where you'll experience the simplicity and authenticity of rural life on Aegina. Participate in a hands-on cooking class where you'll learn how to prepare rizogalo, a traditional Greek rice pudding. This creamy dessert, made with fresh milk from the farm, is a beloved staple in Greek households.

Seafood Lunch in Perdika:

After your culinary adventure, head to the quaint fishing village of Perdika for a delicious seafood lunch. Feast on a variety of fresh fish and seafood dishes, accompanied by traditional Greek sides, all while enjoying the stunning sea views from a seaside taverna.

Pistachio Tasting Products by the Port:

The tour concludes with a stroll around Aegina's charming port. Here, you'll have the chance to sample a variety of pistachio-based products, from sweets to savory delights. Don't miss the opportunity to indulge in some locally made pistachio ice cream—a creamy, nutty treat that perfectly encapsulates the flavors of Aegina.

Return to Athens:

After a day filled with culinary delights and cultural exploration, you'll take the ferry back to Athens, carrying with you unforgettable memories and perhaps a few bags of Aegina's famous pistachios! This tour is a perfect blend of relaxation, culture, and gastronomy, offering a true taste of what makes Aegina so special.

DAY TRIP TO CORINTH FROM ATHENS: OLIVE OIL, WINE & LOCAL PRODUCTS TASTING

Greek Olive Oil Tasting & Food Pairing Experience

The tour begins at a picturesque olive grove, where guests are introduced to Greece's "liquid gold"—olive oil. Walk among olive trees and learn about the significance of these sacred trees in Greek culture. This enlightening walk through the grove sets the stage for an olive oil tasting, where guests sample a variety of oils, each showcasing distinctive profiles, from mild and fruity to bold and peppery. The tasting is elevated with a food pairing session, featuring local delicacies chosen to bring out the best in each oil, allowing guests to experience how olive oil enhances the flavors of traditional Greek dishes.

Grape Products Tasting and Culinary Demonstration

The tour then moves to a traditional vinegar producer to explore the art of transforming wine into vinegar using ancient techniques. Sample wine vinegar and balsamic varieties and gain an appreciation for the time and expertise required to develop their complex flavors. To further immerse yourself in Corinthian cuisine, a local home cook demonstrates how to prepare a simple, authentic Greek dish. This live cooking session is designed to highlight the versatility of local products and inspire guests with recipes they can recreate at home.

Greek Wine Tasting: A Journey Through the Vineyards of Nemea

The tour concludes with a visit to the renowned wine region of Nemea, where guests are treated to a wine-tasting experience featuring Greece's celebrated Agiorgitiko wines. Surrounded by lush vineyards, learn about the unique climate, soil, and winemaking techniques that contribute to the character of Corinthian wines. With panoramic views of rolling vineyards, this wine tasting provides a sensory delight, blending Greece's winemaking heritage with stunning natural beauty.
